RE: Internship Offer Details

May 1, 2025

We are pleased to extend you an offer letter to join the Superstars internship program as Software Developer Intern.

Your work ethic aligns with our culture, and we are excited to welcome your superstar talent to our team. This opportunity will strongly enhance your knowledge in Flutter Code, Product Development, and Platform Strategy beyond your academics at university. You will receive training and mentorship to bolster your skills in the role.

Start: You will begin the training opportunity on 5/15/2025

Internship End: 8/30/2025

Hours Per Week: 20 hours approximately

Internship Office: 418 Broadway, Ste. N Albany, NY 12207 - remote flexible

Remote Address Approved: Northeastern University -- 440 Huntington Avenue Boston, MA 02115

Job duties will include: understanding the professional design and workflow of the Mobile Application in Flutter; learning the strategy and tools behind the technology stack; coding the front-end of the Mobile Application using Dart, Flutter, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and any other relevant frameworks; learning how to connect the front-end to the back-end using Postman API; meeting weekly to assess sprint progress and discuss product strategy; and helping on company special projects. Internship eligible for academic credit as applicable.

Superstars is a technology company with a platform "Superstars" featured on App Store, Google Play, and the Company's website (www.superstars.co). The mission is to build the VIDEO Professional Network for Next-Gen. Professional network, jobs marketplace, and video platform in one. Graduated the Newchip Accelerator and graduated NYU Stern Venture Studio Accelerator.

We believe in your talent and hope to welcome you to our team. Near the conclusion of the internship, we will discuss performance and long-term goals, including possibility of an offer to join full-time.

Thank you,
Shachar Golan
